hey guys it's D kov coming at you from somewhere in New York State uh I just saw this clip of a Tik tocker realizing that she was supporting a fake movement that she the pro Palestinian movement lied to her and she was really just supporting radical Islam check out how she breaks down why she no longer supports Palestine when did I stop supporting Palestine oh I don't know maybe when I realized that I was supporting radical Islam maybe when I realized that I was supporting a jihadist holy war I have been fighting anti-Semitism on this app for how long and then all of a sudden it was the most popular politically correct thing to do to hate Israel and to call for death of everyone in Israel and if you didn't do that everybody on the woke left literally came for your throat and I saw how hypocritical the movement was and you guys don't even and think about what you're actually supporting before I made a pro Palestine video I went and looked at the like the other side of the echo chamber and I realized oh I'm being lied to you guys wouldn't even let people do research and come to a deeper conclusion I tried to post a video saying Hey I can see things from both sides of this conflict I don't want to choose a side and I got eaten apart for that uh never again will I bend the knee to the insane woke left you guys don't care what you're supporting as long as it's like the politically popular thing at the time and I don't ever want to hear that people on the left are loving and tolerant and are are social justice Warriors again when you deny that October 7th happened when you say that it doesn't matter that October 7th happened and it doesn't matter what's actually happened between Palestine and Israel for the past thousands and thousands of years it doesn't matter the history of it doesn't matter all that matters Ms is that your political identity is being confirmed that you feel like you're being a political activist you don't care that you are calling to the death of Israel because you think that they're the oppressor which is another just woke term white people are not the only people who've ever colonized land white people are certainly not the only people who've had slaves you guys need to learn actual history right okay it's actually insane I care about innocent lives on both sides and somehow it's like Politically Incorrect to say that just like you can't say that you care about all humans when did it become Politically Incorrect to say that you you care about all humans yeah I can see both sides of this conflict I'm horrified by the death on both sides of this conflict and that's actually a healthy response so and I promise you honey I know you have a little baby right you're a new mom you do not want to be supporting jihadist regimes okay do you know what they would do to you and your little baby as an American woman if they got their hands on you yeah it's their religion to absolutely annihilate you as a human and then leave you in the unless you bend the knee to them if a child is graped in their culture they are forced to marry that person that's Sharia law the women have to have permission to speak child marriage is fine um yeah do you know what you're supporting cuz I think that's weird not just weird it's foul like once you really get into this you can never unsee it and we cannot allow this stuff in the west they already have in the UK and look what's happening there you probably don't even know what's happening there so yeah you're literally saying that it's okay to want to kill other people because of religion you're supporting religious extremists who have vowed to keep hurting Israel why do you think Israel has the Iron Dome why do you think like you're saying that it's totally fine um for people to act that extreme over religion and you're supporting a religion that will literally calls for death to anybody who does not bow the knee to them and you're like yeah you guys like that that's the loving thing to do actually wake up all right thanks for watching uh I think that more people are waking up and the world is healing a lot of these young folks you know they thought that they were you know doing the right thing by supporting the right side and being on the right side of history and they wanted to be on the right side of History they was all empathy and it was all coming from a good place but now they're realizing that they were lied to um and a lot of these uh you know propaganda channels to young people on Tik Tok and all these other platforms uh are essentially brainwashing millions of young people in America and worldwide so it's great to see some people waking up for more subscribe to the channel if you want to help us make more of these videos you can go to buac coffee.com Jewish uncensored thank you and have a good one
