[Ég ákvað að breyta orðræðunni í texta, en ég ætla ekki að gefa mér tíma til að hlusta á myndbandið. Boðskap Harris Sultana er fljótlegt að sjá á 9 blaðsíðum. Vestrinu hefur í 70 ár verið stjórnað af fávítum, sem hafa leyft múslimskum, gröðum körlum að hernema borgir Vestur-Evrópu. Hættan er augljós; Kóraninn fyrirskipar að múslimar eigi að auðmýkja og kúga trúleysingja/kristna. Í Kóran eru fyrirmæli um að Sharía lög skuli ríkja í öllum löndum jarðar. T.Í.]

All right folks, this is Harris Sultan. On this channel, I have spoken quite extensively about the ills of letting unwetted migrants into your country. And we saw since 2015 2016, there was a tsunami of illegal migrants coming into Europe and then also in the UK. These people claimed that they were asylum seekers and their home countries were being bombed by their own people. For example, Syria, Libya. Yes, NATO did bomb Libya. But to save the Libyan people from Gaddafi's bombing, but yet always it's the West that's the bad guy.

And yes, we have a lot of idiots, useful idiots in the West who blame the West for trying to do the right thing. But maybe the West shouldn't get involved. But even if the West didn't get involved, these people would still come because this is just an excuse. Who leaves their women and children behind?

Because what we have seen these people who come from Africa, who come from the Middle East, they're all fighting age men and our governments have been putting them in hotels, especially in the UK. Every major European city is [___] It's doubly [___] It's royally [___] If you are a woman, I have played you many videos in the past where I've shown you how women are getting sexually assaulted and attacked by these illegal migrants. and no justice is being delivered to them because what do you do?

I personally know an asylum seeker woman. She's a Pakistani ex-Muslim atheist woman. She's in Germany. So she went to this German language school to learn German. There was this Egyptian man there too and he saw her wearing western clothes and he started [___] shaming her that you're a Muslim woman. Why are you wearing these clothes? And then he literally pushed her and she went flying. She was little.

And then the German teacher was just left shocked. couldn't do anything because these men are highly aggressive. The police did come and removed him, but then he was back again. So, the girl stopped going to that school. If you're a woman in these regions where there are illegal migrants, you're expected to be sexually assaulted. If you're a man and you jump in the defense of the woman, then you're going to get stabbed.

There was an American tourist not too long ago. He tried to help a European woman. I think it was in France, maybe. He tried to help a European woman from an aggressive, illegal, horny migrant and then he got stabbed. If y'all didn't think that Europe had an immigration problem, especially Germany, let me drop some knowledge on you. It is right now. In 3 minutes, that man that assaulted that young woman yesterday will be released from custody.

He's a gun, an illegal one, a drug dealer, and uh very popularly known here, especially by the police. This is not the first time this has happened. It's not the first time that man had beat up a woman. And it's not the first time that the other guy decided to take a swing in my face with a 6-in blade. If they could do this to the people of Germany and then just get released 12 hours later, even less at this point. Where's the law? Poor guy got stabbed.

He got disfigured for life for trying to do the right thing. something that the police should be doing. Something that the government should never have allowed. You come in off. Sorry, we're full. We can't take you in. Go fight your own battles in Syria. Say, why would they go back? They would never go back. Let me show you how they see this [__] bunch of idiots.

These Western politicians, you can't hate them enough. Look at this. Listen to this. N good and good, brother. Syria is Syria. Syria there's no money. Nobody gives you money. Germany here have free money. [Music] Yeah. Good. Yeah. Why go back? That's awesome. That's exactly how they're thinking about living in those migrant hotels in the UK. Why go back?

There's so much poverty. All we get to see in Afghanistan are other bearded men. And our women look like men too. There here. We're housed, we are clothed, we are fed, and then we can go out and sexually assault women. [__] This is amazing. Who would go back? It's not just this guy. Listen to this. Go back. The war is over. Go back. Rebuild your country. I'm feeling fun. Yeah, I am for Sharia.

There is no Sharia in Germany. There is Sharia in his home country Syria, but he's not going to go there. Just like westernborn Muslims are using free speech against the West. These people are abusing your asylum laws, your humanitarian laws, your humane nature. They are using it against you. But you are hellbent on your self-righteousness in your virtue signaling. But these men, they're all men. And the very few women that there are who have fled countries like Pakistan and Afghanistan, they're struggling to get asylum in Germany.

I'm in touch with two such women. I've written my letters of recommendation, but it looks like things are changing. They are rejecting a lot of asylum applications, but they're not deporting these people. They're rejecting genuine asylum applications because of pricks like these, but then they're punishing women as well. I mean, women, we should always take women. That's what India did a few years ago.

They passed this law. Anyone from the Indian subcontinent region, which included countries like Bangladesh, Afghanistan and Pakistan, any non-Muslim persecuted minority can just come to India. And a lot of Muslims were like, including myself. I criticized the Modi government at the time. And I said, why? What about the Muslims? What about the Shia? What about the Armades? Modi said, "No, no, sorry. They're not my problem."

That's what the West needs to do now. No asylum for Muslims. If they have 55 other Muslim countries, Malaysia, Turkey, Indonesia, go to those countries that are culturally closer to you. Go over there, tell them you want Sharia in Malaysia and Indonesia. Do not let them come. Western countries, I'm sorry. Desperate times call for desperate measures. We are living through unprecedented times and we need unprecedented laws. We need discriminatory laws.

Asylum applicants only for non-Muslims from Muslim countries and atheists. Of course, if you're a Sunni Muslim, why are you fleeing Pakistan? Why are you fleeing Afghanistan? You have your government. And when they come here, they say the same thing. We want Sharia in the UK. We want Sharia in Germany. then go and live in countries where they sharia. That wasn't the purpose of this video.

Women, let's come back to that. Us men can get stabbed by these people and women, look what happens to women. Look at this prick. He is harassing, stalking, cat calling German women shamelessly and filming it. [Music] Hitler would be really disappointed. Look at this bearded man. Oh, look at Paris. Look what they've done. Third world countries. I said this nearly 5 years ago in one of my UDU channels that third worlders wherever they go, they turn it into a third world. And a lot of pakis, a lot of liberal pakis were like, "Oh, you always want to put down your own people."

Look at this. This is Paris. This is Paris. This is Paris. There's a garbage truck there, too. Look at this. world. But Paris is a third world city. There's another one I just saw recently. Let me show you another one. London, South Hall. South Hall is predominantly occupied by Punjabi Indians. And this is an Indian woman bagging Indian people that look what they've done. Look at this. Nothing beats a Jet 2 holiday. And right now, you can save £50 per person. That's £200 off for a family of four. [Music] Guilty, filthy, third world.

I'm sorry. Third worlders, wherever they go, better leave the third world habits behind. But this is the video that I saw and that I wanted to show you and I decided to make a separate video. Look at this woman. A woman was brutally beaten in a Zurich tram by a bearded man on Sunday. The victim was left heavily bleeding. Two bystanders subdued the attacker by but Swiss police were unable to send a unit. Therefore, the attacker was eventually let go and remains on the run.

This guy right there, he just officially he just hit my nose in the middle of the night in Zurich city. Look at his face and remember it's so dangerous to be a woman in the middle of the city in Zurich because of foreign migrant men that the EU politicians because their daughters are safe. They've got security details. They're rich. They don't use public transport. They're safe. And probably this woman was a woke woman too at some point, but maybe not anymore because, you know, she could have said something about this.

Look at this bearded man. She could have gotten angry at the politicians, but maybe, you know, she's like, "Oh, it's a bit racist." You guys, they're making you racist. Not racist. It's actually culturalist. Not racist. Culturalist yourself. What are the Swiss police busy with? What do they have? They couldn't come in time. I reckon this woman is a woke. She didn't thank the men who pinned that guy down who probably saved her life and gave some agency back to her. She didn't even mention them. She said, "I felt really alone." Well, yes, you were alone. You should be alone.

You should be okay. But we've got horny men coming in from horny cultures. But thankfully, the much maligned western men, they were there to save you. We were busy. We could not send a patrol at the time because we were dealing with other violent migrants. It was simple involved migrants. Look at this woman. I think she's an American woman in France. What a shame. Paris, the city of romance, the city of fashion. That's what we used to think about Paris.

But I showed you what Paris is these days. This is what Paris is these days. This is Paris. This is Yeah. So, look what this girl is saying. Don't get me wrong, I love living in Paris, but it is not for the [] week. I like go back to able to go outside right now and be able to enjoy a lot of it. I've been harassed so many [] times in this goddamn city that I'm afraid to go anywhere [] alone. [Music] And there's a whole beautiful city out there that I just want to see, but I'm actually [] terrified. [Music] Send help. Please, please tell me to go back to my country. I will.

What do you need to send help? Catch a plane. Go back. That's it. Party's over. President Trump can't save you all. These countries don't want to be saved. They're still drowning in the sea of their own self-righteousness. Oh, we got to embrace everyone. Why don't these migrants from similar countries behave like this in the UAE, in Saudi Arabia? Why? Ooh, I have this newfound admiration for the UAE. I really do. I know that there's a lot of room for improvement. They're still a bit too barbaric for my liking. And they would put me in jail as well because I'm a blasphemer and apostate.

But having said that though, I know their rules. I wouldn't go there. I miss Dubai. I want to see, you know, there are a few fun activities in Dubai that I would like to do. I've been there a couple of times, but I understand. I know what's the deal. So, I wouldn't go there. That's why these people stay in their lane over there. But the West, as I often say, got too civilized for its own good. Western laws are good for Westerners. I don't want a community service.

I don't want to have a criminal record on my file because I want to travel the world. I don't want to go to jail even for a week. These [] don't care. Let's see a woman for the first time.

Beautiful women. Back home, they're used to seeing women with beards or no women at all. Back home, they see an ankle, they got horny. Let me show you what they did in Afghanistan.

There was another video that I just saw recently. Let me show you. Saw a video somewhere. Oh, I don't think I saved it. There was a German couple in Afghanistan. Kudos to their intellect. There was cycling in Afghanistan. Yeah. And let me play you another video. I didn't play this video before. Another video of a migrant harassing a western woman. Watch this. Don't touch me. Okay. Save me. Save me.

What the [__] Come on. Are you [__] crazy or what? I said you don't touch me. Go out. I want problem. I want [__] problem. I don't know where she is. Yeah, you have a [__] Look at it. He's trying it. He wants to touch it again. Oh my god. Horny people. Horny cultures.

Sorry, I got to tell you this. Anyway, I don't think I saved that video of that stupid German couple that decided to cycle through Kabul and then there was an Afghan man who was cycling along next to the woman and as soon as he would get close to her, he would touch her bum with his elbow and then he did it a couple of times and then her husband noticed he's like, "Hey, don't do this."

And I was like, "Bro, you got to be careful because he can accuse you of something and you're [__] That's how stupid it is." This reminds me of those two woke sisters. This is back in 2015, 2016. They were told, "Don't go." But they were like, "No, we're woke. All world is love. It's faright propaganda, dehumanization, and demonizing of Muslims. These people are nice people. We just give love." Those two poor girls, they were beheaded.

Beheaded. And the murderers sent the parents of the girls the beheaded photos. That's how [__] up it was. And then there was this other Italian guy with tattoos and everything. He went to Gaza. I think he was gay or something. I don't know what he was. This is old news. 2003 or 4, something like that. maybe just immediately after 2005 after the withdrawal of um of Israel from Gaza. He was very anti-Israel, one of these wokes, you know, typical wokes.

Wokes before being woke was a thing. And he was massive pro Gaza anti-Israeli guy. He was beheaded by Hamas. This woke mind virus. They're useful idiots. These guys are useful idiots. I read a really good definition of uh useful idiot somewhere on social media. It went something like people who are convinced of an ideology regime or a government which ultimately is contrary to their own interests. I was listening to this former KGB. It's an old interview.

I'm sure you probably have seen it somewhere. Actually, let me play that to you. This is what happens to wolves every time. Every single time without fail, everywhere they manage to bring about a commi revolution, far-lefty utopian revolution, they're the first ones to be shot. Idiots, the the leftists who are idealistically believing in the beauty of Soviet socialists or communist or whatever system.

When they get disillusioned, they become the worst enemies. That's why my KGB instructors specifically made the point, never bother with leftists. Forget about this political useful idiots. ical prostitutes aim higher. They serve purpose only at the stage of destabilization of a nation. For example, your leftists in United States, all these professors and all these beautiful civil rights defender, they are instrumental in the process of the of the uh uh subversion only to destabilize the nation. When their job is completed, they are not they are not needed anymore. They know too much. Some of them when when they get disillusioned when they see that Marxist Lenin has come to power obviously they get offended they think that they will come to power that will never happen of course they will be lined up against the wall and shot but they may turn into the most bitter enemies of Marxist Leninists when they come to power like him

He was a Marxist Leninist too at one point communism in theory it sells you this amazing utopia And idiots, low IQ individuals are the first ones to fall for it. Usually they're young people because they are disillusioned. They're like, "Man, I'm doing these three shifts and I'm going to uni. I've got this mounting debt. I have to pay rent. I want to party. I want to go out. I want to take drugs, but I can't do it because this money system, this monetary system, it's [__] me up."

So what do they do? They want to get out of it. Hey, we all worked hard in our younger years. You have to work hard. I get it. Some young people have got it really tough right now. I get it. But there is no other system. You cannot steal money from the rich people who worked really hard for their money and help yourselves with it. That's what these communist that's what these socialist idiots believe.

That's what happened in Nicaragua. You remember most of these former Marxist Leninists were either put to prison or one of them split and now he's working against Sandinistas. It's the same pattern everywhere. The moment they serve their purpose, all the useful idiots are used either be executed entirely or the idealistically minded Marxist and they're not very smart.

Let me show you one of these people. This is who they are. Listen to this guy. Listen. He kay this rainbow flag rather. Oh, Charlie. He was so smart. I'm seeing more and more of his videos. No wonder they hat in him. So, he was so witty, so quick thinking, so confident cuz he understood. He understood all of this. Listen to this. Why hasn't Elon. He's going to be the first one to be shot if there is a successful Marxist revolution in America, but it won't happen.

Put up some some of his own private money to help end homelessness cuz homelessness is not a money problem. Homelessness. Tell that to homeless people. I have I say, you know what, almost every single one of them has either mental problems or drug disorders. It is not a matter of lack of capital. It's that they should either be in an asylum or they're doing hard drugs and they don't want to stop. Most of them, really, most of them.

Some people can really be bad with money and then they can blow up. They can squander their funds and they can be out on the streets. But again, there's there are plenty of opportunities for you to get back on your feet and it happens all the time. So many clean homeless people get back on their feet all the time. We have homeless that the asylums that Ronald Reagan defunded. We the asylums that Ronald If we want to talk about bringing back asylums, I'm all for that. I have an entire political party I would put in an asylum. Okay. He will be the first one.

See, he was still very nice. If he was a commie, he would have said, "I would have sent you to a gulag. All right, my second question is about Mamu Khalo. He was a legal immigrant with a green card with a wife and a baby on the way exercising his free speech rights. So my question is if legal immigrants aren't safe then who is American citizen?

Yeah, he's not a but citizen. He is a green card holder here legally. It doesn't matter. Doesn't matter. Yes, he's not a US citizen. How does it not m read the immigration naturalization act? What Mahmud Khalil did was he went and protested celebrating the death of Jewish babies celebrating Hamas in Gaza and under the immigration. Not only just that, he actually spread Hamas's propaganda pamphlets naturalization act and funded that too. Collected funds for that.

Clear the Secretary of State can deem somebody who has a green card or a temporary visa holder as a threat to the United States of America and against our geopolitical interest of which Mahmud Khalil did. and is and he can go make Turkey great again and go back to his country of origin. Look at his comeback. He's from Palestine, not Turkey. Well, I he he jumped around the Middle East a lot. But the point being, do you believe that being here in America here is a right or a privilege? Privilege. Is a right and a privilege. You have a right to be here. Yes. I believe anybody has a free a right to movement to wherever they want. That's what I'm saying. He's not going to last.

Those people from Africa, those people from Syria or Afghanistan, those people from South America, from Mexico, Nicaragua. I know what they're going to do to him. What woke paradise these idiots live in. Look at his face, Charlie's face. Like, seriously, these [__] will not last a day in the brutal world of these hard people. These people are hard people. And I'm telling you that those people are so violent and brutal that even professional MMA fighters, even professional fighters, people who know how to fight, they can be overwhelmed by these people because they pull out a knife, they pull out a gun, they shoot you first, ask questions later.

And this scrawny woke, he wants all of them here. This is a mind virus. This is a mental illness. So you would get rid of all borders? Yes. So when you land from a international flight at JFK airport, no passport checks. Nope. Okay. Thank you for so bluntly telling us your I mean I'm a dirty commie. So yeah. Yeah. Oh, actually yeah, that you can tell he's not very smart. Charlie Kirk is smart. obviously outwitted him, but even if someone who was not as smart as Charlie

Kirk could have had this guy, and you can tell, which says a lot about this guy, he is that classic useful idiot that Yuri just described.

He will be the first one to be lined up against a wall and gone because he's going to be like, "Oh, but what happened? We brought about this revolution. We don't get to control the means of production." I thought it's the people. Just by naming everything people's commissar of agriculture, people's commissar of industry doesn't mean it belongs to the people. It means it belongs to the supreme leader and a few of his cronies. That's it.

It's always been like that. But yet there is this resurgence of communist ideals. There are so many commies around. So many. That would be a my third question. What is your definition of socialism? Well, in the theoretical, the abstract, or the practical, take your pick. So, socialism as written by Marks is when the workers own the means of production. Exactly.

In the actual practical, it's when a small group of very powerful pernicious people are able to control the rest of the population under the guise of helping the many when in reality it helps the few. And you get dictatorship, murder, and slaughter. And the revolution never actually comes. It ends in a 100red million people dead over the last 100 years. That's it.

So anyway, sorry guys, ended up being too long. So yeah, so that so these are the people who have damaged our world. Their virtue signaling led to really soft laws, really soft immigration laws which in turn created a very violent world. And now they have created a violent world. They're exacerbating the problem by infiltrating our justice system. And now we have even more woke laws. That's why the guy who killed Ireina, that brutal animal, he was let off.

He was arrested 14 times and released 14 times. And you would think that these people will say, "Oh, oh, okay. Okay, that's not what we're saying." Because there's some middlewoke people that I talk to, I say, "What? What is this behavior?" They said, "No, no, nobody's saying that these people should be let off." I'm like, "No, that's what they're saying. Let me show you something that will make your blood boil." The purpose of these videos is not really to make you angry or increase your blood pressure, but it is to show you what's actually happening because a lot of us, we live in our bubbles and we don't know most of the time what's happening in the world.

Um, it makes sense. I mean, I live in a pretty peaceful neighborhood and I don't know what's going on in the world if it wasn't for social media. This was Ireina, remember? She was killed by this animal. So, someone defaced that mural that was dedicated for Ireina and they posted and and they painted her murderers mural over her. How is that not a wicked evil ideology that makes you glorify this animal over the victim?

See, it doesn't get any more black and white than this. Sorry for the lack of better term. Unprovoked. She just sat there. Kept a low profile sweatshirt and trackies and a hat. Sat totally colorblind. She was surrounded by all black people. By the way, on her right and behind her, all around her were black people. She was colorb blind. She had a poster of Black Lives Matter.

Came and sat down in front of this guy again, totally colorblind. And he killed her. She didn't even look in his direction. Didn't even provoke him. Zero provocation. Totally innocent. And this guy without any provocation, without any reason other than his hatred for white people or his mental illness, whatever, pure evil, stabbed her brutally.

Oh my god, her photo. Oh, look. Somebody actually painted a penis on her mouth, too. Look at that. This is just Who are these people? I showed you the guy that you just saw before. That's what we are up against, people. This is pure sheer stupidity idiocy that has created evilness out of this. Who would have thought that being an idiot would amount to evil one day? I always thought being an idiot was a psychological disposition, a natural ailment like you have no control over it. But who would have thought that being an idiot would amount to being evil?

Wickedness. These people are literally creating an evil world. Migrants sexually assault beat up women. White man is a problem. Native black crime on innocent white people. White man's the problem. Open borders, rapists, Islamist ideologues coming in wanting to enforce Sharia. White man's the problem. This is [__] guys. You look better. [Music] [Music] Love.
